

Evening Teambuilding

Millionaire By Midnight

Our Millionaire by Midnight team event challenges you to gamble and game on our genuine casino tables and grown-up games to win 'money' and become Millionaires by Midnight!

This fantastic evening event adds a competitive element to classic casino-style gaming. You're competing as a team to win the most 'money' over a selection of amusing after-dinner activities.

This event works brilliantly after a drinks reception, dinner, conference, or one of our outdoor or indoor events. We come to a venue of your choice with a huge selection of activities, from Roulette to Giant Scalextric, Poker to Air Hockey... There's something for everyone in Millionaire by Midnight.

We will tailor the focus of the event to your preferences. Activities may be run in the background for your guests to play as they please, or we can structure it to create a more competitive atmosphere.

On the stroke of midnight it's time to hand in your winnings. Which team has banked the most to become Millionaires by Midnight...!?
