

Virtual Teambuilding

Virtual Cuisine Team

EVENT FACTS:

Duration: Approx. 1-2 hours

Location: Nationwide

Group Size: 15-100

There's nothing better than a home cooked meal made from fresh quality ingredients. Combine this with the satisfaction that you cooked it yourself and learned something new and the result is our Cuisine Team virtual event.

Regardless of previous culinary skills, beginners to accomplished home cooks will benefit from our professional chef's guidance and advice.

A few basic utensils and a modest kitchen are all that are needed to achieve meals that will delight friends and family when you recreate what was learnt on this event. We'll send all the ingredients and key items needed to your door 2 days prior using our reliable courier.

We start with an overview of the recipe to be created and touch on knife skills, ingredient selection and the chemistry that's so crucial in tasty cuisine. Our chef will be on hand for questions throughout the event and ensure each dish created satisfies.

You can add a competitive element if required with our chef judging the results. There's also the option of virtual break out rooms enabling groups to collaborate to achieve the end result for judging based on creative use of ingredients and presentation.

Delegates can demonstrate the ability to follow instruction, use initiative and execute the practical aspects of the challenge along with show their creative skills.
