Saboteurs is one of our most thrilling and competitive events – a fast-paced, high-stakes experience of wit, nerve, and deception. Inspired by the hit show The Traitors, this tense and exhilarating challenge has teams completing a series of cerebral challenges that encourage lateral thinking – while trying to uncover who among them can truly be trusted.

As the event begins, the traitors are silently selected. The traitor's aim is to secretly sabotage the faithful's success, build pseudo-alliances, and remain undetected. Teams will have a few moments to gauge their colleagues reactions, plan their strategy, decide how to use the team's strengths and, crucially, who can be trusted. Points are earned through triumphs but lost through deceit, so you'll need strategy as much as speed.

Between rounds, teams gather at their round table to question loyalties and expose the saboteurs in their midst. Can you identify the deceivers before they dismantle your efforts from within?

Points mean prizes, but only those who combine skill, intuition, and teamwork will claim victory. Our Saboteurs event blends logic, laughter, and deceit in a fast-moving battle of trust and treachery that will leave your team buzzing with energy long after the game ends.
