Prepare yourself for hysterics, dramatics, and a jolly good mystery! As you enjoy pre-dinner drinks, a dramatic scream pierces the festive air, followed by a loud bang—what could it be? Enter Inspector Willy Catchem, who arrives to unveil the shocking news: Santa has been murdered! And the dastardly culprit is still in the building. The Inspector needs your help to catch this Christmas scoundrel!

This event promises a tongue-in-cheek evening filled with cheeky humour and playful innuendo. Our professional actors will keep you laughing and guessing as you work to unravel the mystery of who done it!

Between courses, our talented cast will mingle, visiting each table to share their version of events. But beware—who can you really trust? Nothing is as it seems, and everyone has a motive; the real challenge is finding the one with an alibi!

With delightful costumes and realistic props, you'll be fully immersed in this festive caper. To wrap up the evening, each table will showcase their detective skills by proposing their suspect: the murderer, the motive, and the method.

We offer a variety of fantastic scripts and twists on the classic Murder Mystery. Feel free to discuss your preferences with us! The setting can be contemporary or transport you back to the golden age of crime fiction, like the roaring twenties or a Downton Abbey-style affair.
